SITTING PRETTY

Style and sustainability go hand in hand in a new zero-net-energy home in St. Michaels

“MY CLIENTS EMBRACED THE IDEA OF EASY LIVING. NOTHING’S FUSSY, BUT IT’S NICELY DONE.” —ERIN PAGE PITTS

The soothing master bedroom (shown and opposite) is a study in clean and crisp. Simple linen draperies soften a wall of windows. The bed and chair are from Eero and the bench is by Bernhardt. The rug like most in this house is a heated floor covered in porcelain tile in a heating zone pattern and built modern mosaic by Van Gogh. Built-in bookcases are with a roll of felt.
